

Equity Code of Conduct

As a full member of Equity, the professional actors' organisation, Mr Windbags abides by the Equity Code of Conduct for Children's Entertainers:

Equity Children's Entertainer Code of Conduct

It is important to note that entertainers are not employed as child minders and WILL ONLY WORK when there is a responsible adult present. It is the responsibility of the employer to ensure that this condition is met.

The Equity Children's Entertainer will be:

Reliable:	Be there at the prescribed time/place.
Clear:	Offer a written confirmation (where practical) so the booker will be in no doubt.
Knowledgeable:	Of children and the craft of entertaining them.
Responsible:	By insisting that there is a responsible adult present when the entertainer is working.
Sensitive, flexible and adaptable:	To fit a variety of audience types and complete the job satisfactorily.
Safe:	With good quality, well maintained props and £10 million Public Liability Insurance (automatic with Equity membership).
Value for money:	With responsible, fair rates and terms.
Professional:	Committed to delivery of a good service as this is a career and a vocation not a hobby.
